TRAFFIC ADVISORY

MUSEUM DRIVE TO BE REDUCED TO ONE LANE UNDER MICHIGAN AVENUE FOR MAINTANENCE

The City of Lansing Department of Planning and Neighborhood Development announces that Museum Drive will be reduced to one travel lane between the Lansing Center covered parking area and the Michigan Avenue access ramps. This reduction is needed to complete preventive maintenance work on a Board of Water and Light's water main.

Beginning Thursday, September 11, 2008 crews will be closing one travel lane as work above the lane is required, a traffic regulator (Flag-person) will be assisting motorist needing to access this portion of the street. This project is scheduled to be completed by Saturday, September 13, 2008.

Additional traffic advisory information can be located at www.lansingmi.gov.
